TERMS OF SALE

1. This is a public auction sale conducted by licensed and bonded auctioneers.
2. A 10% BUYER'S CHARGE will be added to the "hammer price" of each lot as determined by the auctioneer. This 10% BUYER'S FEE will be added to the invoice of each successful bidder regardless of a bidder's affiliation with any group or organization. Bidders must pay all Postage, Express, and Insurance charges.
3. We cannot be responsible for any errors in bidding. Please make certain you bid on the correct lot. When bidding for items in the sale, the bidder whether bidding in person, by mail, or by agent, agrees to abide by all the terms of sale.
4. MAIL YOUR BID SHEET EARLY. These bids will be treated as your maximum bid for each lot. In general, we start the bidding on each lot at a small advance over the next highest bid, thereby attempting to purchase the lot as reasonably as possible for you. On all successful bids, a bidder agrees to pay a 10% BUYER'S FEE in addition to the sum actually bid (hammer price). When identical mail bids are received by the auctioneer, preference is given to the first bid received. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid, and a floor bidder must bid higher than the highest mail bid to be awarded any lot. The auctioneer reserves the right to refuse ridiculously low bids which he, in his sole discretion, feels are not made in good faith. The auctioneer reserves the right to open the lot at a reasonable price, to set bidding increments as he, in his sole discretion, shall determine, and to withdraw any lot at any time.
5. Coins, Medals, etc., are sold so much per LOT, unless otherwise stated. No lots will be broken up. Estimates given are for the general guidance of the bidder. The lots can sell above or below the estimates.
6. Auction sales are not approval sales. In the event of non-payment by the buyer, STACK'S expressly reserves the right to refuse to deliver the lots, and in addition, STACK'S reserves any and all rights that it would be entitled to under the uniform commercial code, including buyer's consent to file a financing statement without need of buyer's signature. Floor bidders are encouraged to carefully examine all lots on which they are interested in bidding since, except for reasons of non-authenticity, NO LOTS PURCHASED BY FLOOR BUYERS MAY BE RETURNED, including those lots where the floor buyer is acting as agent for another, or those lots sold to mail bidders who have examined the lots. No lots will be delivered at the sale. All items offered in this catalogue are guaranteed to be genuine and correctly attributed. Claims to the contrary must be made within seven (7) days after receipt of the material.
7. No lot may be returned for any reason whatsoever without the prior written consent of STACK'S, or without its original container. Grading is a subjective description in the opinion of the cataloguer as to the state of preservation of a particular coin or lot. The term "proof" or "specimen" is used to describe a method of manufacture, and is not a grade or condition. Such terms are the opinion of the cataloguer and shall be deemed to be part of the description, and not an attribution. No warranty, whether expressed or implied, including a warranty of merchantability, is made with respect to such adjectival descriptions, which can and do vary among experts.
8. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the lot in question shall be immediately put up and sold again. No lots will be put up out of their numerical order.
9. Unknown bidders must establish credit references or submit a deposit of 25% of their bids. By bidding in this sale, even if for a corporation or another individual, a bidder personally guarantees prompt payment. We cannot accept bids from minors. By bidding in this sale, the bidder acknowledges that the purchase is not a consumer credit transaction. TITLE REMAINS WITH STACK'S UNTIL PAID FOR IN FULL. It is the buyer's responsibility and obligation to have the lots fully insured while in his possession. Risk of loss is on the buyer.
10. Auction sales are strictly for cash and must be paid for promptly in U. S. funds. All bidders personally guarantee prompt payment. Checks are acceptable with proper identification. On any accounts past due, STACK'S reserves the right to extend credit and impose periodic charges as stated on the invoice or statement.
11. All lots delivered in New York State are subject to applicable Sales Tax.
12. Except for any claim or controversy arising out of non-payment (which, at the exclusive option of the seller or auctioneer may be referred to arbitration), any claim or controversy arising out of this sale shall be settled exclusively by binding arbitration under the rules of the Professional Numismatists Guild, Inc., then in effect. By bidding in this sale you agree to be bound by the arbitration provisions of the Professional Numismatists Guild. In all cases, the maximum liability of STACK'S for any item sold shall be limited to the official price of record of the item at this sale.

The best coinage portraits of this reign are found on the Crowns and the Halfcrowns. While the Crown pieces are deservedly popular, the very size of the planchet made sharply struck specimens difficult to achieve. The somewhat smaller Halfcrowns, on the other hand, are nearly always found with a much crisper, but equally satisfactory, rendering of the royal feature, as the coin described above shows.

1051 Milled Coinage. Shilling. mm. Large Star. Obv. Crowned bust in plain dress. Rv. Arms on a long cross. 29 mm. S.2592, North 2023. The planchet is not quite smooth. Otherwise, About Uncirculated, with a nicely struck portrait. (400-450)

COINAGE AND THE ENGLISH CIVIL WAR

Most of the Civil War coinage carried the "Declaration" in Latin on the reverse. In September 1642, the King declared his intention of preserving the Protestant religion, the laws of England and the liberty of Parliament. The Latin motto, "Religio Protestans Leges Angliae Libertas Parliamenti," was used in various abbreviated versions on the coins.

At the end of 1642, the King moved his headquarters to Oxford. Royalist sentiment was strong in the University city and the authorities in the Colleges supported the King with substantial donations of plate from their treasuries. It was largely by this means that the mint was kept supplied.

THE COMMONWEALTH

The eventual triumph of Parliament in the English Civil Wars, emphasized by the execution of the King in 1649, resulted in a new and austere design used on all denominations with slight modifications in the case of the smallest silver pieces. In a purely artistic sense numismatists have regarded Commonwealth issues as the ugliest coins ever struck by the Tower Mint. However that may be, they were certainly the plainest and among the most uninspired.

The coinage of the victors provided a clear enough indication why the Puritans were only able to impose on Britain for so short a time. As many said, referring to the coinage, the Commonwealth was on one side and God on the other, noting that God came after the former.

1066 The Commonwealth, 1649-1660. Shilling, 1653. mm. Sun. Obv. Shield of St. George within a wreath of palm and laurel. The inscription reads, THE COMMONWEALTH OF ENGLAND. Rv. Shields of St. George and Ireland, with the inscription GOD WITH US. S.3217, North 2734. About Very Fine. (150-175)

THE LAST STUARTS

By 1660 the repressive Puritan regime had plainly outlived its welcome in Britain. King Charles II was recalled to the throne from his place of exile in Holland much to the satisfaction of most of his subjects. As it happened, the restored Stuart dynasty was to survive only long enough to serve as a bridge between the late Renaissance world in England and the beginning of the modern era.

The Final Stuarts

The final Stuarts were daughters of King James. Mary II, happily married to William of Orange, Stadholder of the Netherlands, was recalled with her husband to bring order where her father had left incipient chaos. She reigned with William as joint monarch, not just as consort, and was in charge of the government during the King's frequent absences abroad on his military duties.

Dutch William

King William continued as Sovereign after his wife's death from smallpox in 1694. He was instrumental in bringing the unprincipled and unbridled depredations of Louis XIV to a halt. Numismatically his reign is important because of the unfortunate recoinage when Sir Issac Newton was Warden of the Mint. The recoinage was intended to remove the clipped and underweight hammered pieces from circulation. In effect it provided a quantity of handsome and heavy silver and gold coins to be exported abroad for foreign profit at the taxpayer's expense.

QUEEN ANNE AND THE END OF A DYNASTY

Queen Anne succeeded her childless brother-in-law in 1702 and reigned during one of the most remarkable periods of modern British history. Abroad, the Duke of Marlborough brought Louis XIV to his knees in a series of brilliant victories. At home the reign was marked by splendid achievements in the fields of art, architecture, literature and interior design. But none of the Queen's many children survived her and when she died in 1714 the Stuart dynasty died with her, although a few embarrassed phantoms of the race lasted until the Napoleonic era.

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE PROOF BRITISH DOLLAR OF 1895 STRUCK IN GOLD

Lot No. 1215

1215 Gold Proof British Dollar, 1895 B. mm. B on trident. Bombay. Obv. Britannia helmeted, standing supporting the Union shield with her left hand, and holding a trident in her right, in the distance a three-masted ship, ONE DOLLAR around, and in the exergue 1895, the whole contained within linear and beaded circles and key pattern border. Rv. An ornamental quatrefoil with inscriptions in Chinese, Persian, Malay and Dyak, the whole surrounded by a beaded circle and key border. Edge grained. Contained in an original turned ivory box bearing the inscription, ONE DOLLAR-1895-IN GOLD-ONLY TWO SPECIMENS STRUCK. Excessively rare. Brilliant Proof. F.D.C. (SEE COLOR PLATE) (5,500-6,500)

The inscribed ivory case suggests the possibility that the coin may have been an official presentation piece. Whether there were only two specimens struck or not depends on rather shadowy evidence provided by the Murdoch Sale, and by Pridmore.

Pridmore notes in his second volume, page 335, that his information about the Proof Gold British Dollars was based on the 21 July 1903 Murdoch Sale of Colonial Coins where 13 of them dated from 1895 to 1902 were offered in Lots 328 to 340. Confessing that he had never seen any of the pieces, he noted that they were all privately commissioned and ought to be classified as "Proof Restrikes."

Modern opinion now concludes that it was Murdoch himself who arranged to have the coins struck. His catalogue lists the dates in pairs with the exception of 1895, 1898, and 1901 which were represented by only single examples. None of the coins came with ivory cases.

The presence of the inscribed ivory container, then, permits a rather broader explanation of the origins of the Gold Proof British Dollars than has hitherto been attempted. It can be suggested that they could all have been struck for presentation purposes. Of the group only the 1895, 1898 and 1901 were actually used. For reasons not yet explained Murdoch was allowed to purchase the unissued pieces.

However this may be, our specimen is also the only Gold British Dollar with a claim to a pedigree that does not appear to lead back to Murdoch through an uncertain Pridmore. It is also a charming and rare example of the British Colonial coinage at a time when the Empire had reached the apogee of its power.
